Figure 6. What the model does when constraints compete under the control, reasoning moves probability out of "neither" into "target only" — target-priority arbitration, not joint satisfaction